

THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE

April 2008

In the Vineyard

The grapes were picked at the end of March. The Pinot Noir took one day, and the Sauvignon Blanc two days. An awesome effort by the picking team, which was celebrated at the end with a barbecue and a beer or glass or two of the latest drinking vintage. The vineyard goes quiet now, waiting for the leaves to drop prior to pruning, which is usually around June/July.
